

NOTES

Sunday December 10th, 2023

1. What does it mean/look like for you to personally preach the Gospel without a pulpit on a Sunday morning?
2. How do we move beyond 'being a good example' to actually speaking Gospel truth to a person? Have you seen that or done that poorly in the past?
3. Practice some real-life scenarios where conversations go beyond the casual into meaningful or even spiritual conversations? What is that line between normalizing Jesus into something he is not, but not being a 'Bible Basher' that repels people.
4. Share together 2 or 3 people you could approach this week to invite to our Christmas Eve services. What are their names so you can pray for them as a group?
