

NOTES

Sunday January 28th, 2024

1. Talk about your first experience going to church or being introduced to Jesus for the first time. What was that like for you? Good or bad? What intrigued you? How did this impact you today?
2. Who is the person(s) that said “Follow Me” and led you to Jesus? Who is the person(s) who taught you the most about what it looked like to follow Jesus? What was it about this person that stood out? What was different? What was attractive to you?
3. Do you want to now be that person for someone else? Do you want to be a disciple-maker? If yes, what’s holding you back? Talk about those barriers and reasons why it’s hard to disciple, and then commit to praying for one another that these barriers would be knocked down.
4. Who is in your circle of the world that you feel God is calling you to disciple? Begin to pray about how you could invite them into a discipleship relationship with you. Ask your group to pray for you as you step boldly into this obedience.
5. If there isn’t anyone you feel God calling you to disciple, think about where God has placed you. What influence has He given you? Who could God be leading you to invite into a discipleship relationship? Ask God to show you who this may be. Ask your group to pray for you as you step boldly into this obedience.
6. Talk as a group about going through the Discipleship Bootcamp together. Take a break from your regular rhythm, and join us on Wednesday, Feb 7th in Alma or Mount Pleasant , or Tuesday, Feb 6th in St. Johns.
