1. Before Hosea speaks, God commands Hosea into a real -life scenario that will cause him to feel what God feels. Is it possible that God has leveraged very difficult things in your life to accomplish empathy in you? Describe.
2. As you consider Hosea's family, the names of his children, the prostitution of his wife, what is correlation to us? Define. How do we make God feel?
3. Re-read Hosea 2: 14 – 23. What is God doing? Has he done this for you?
4. Where is the Gospel of Jesus Christ mirrored in the life of this prophet?
5. The life we live matter, as others view the way we handle pain, difficulty, disappointment... How can you grow in this, and how can the picture of your life beautify your expression of the Gospel?
