1. Blessed are the poor, those who mourn, the meek... Why is this message 'not of this world'?
2. Define what Christ means when he says "poor, mourn and meek". That does not sound like the good life. Why is this a blessed thing?
3. Define the characteristics of the people Christ was preaching to in Matt 4: 28 – 5: 2
4. What happens to Christ followers when we pretend that we are better than we are. What happens to our witness to a lost world? Why does God call us to be honest about our weaknesses and sin? Read 1 John 1: 8, 9
5. As God's mouthpiece and carriers of the Gospel, who qualifies to hear this message. Who would the Spirit of God have you pray for and possibly speak to about his offer of undeserved forgiveness? Share with the group.
