

NOTES

Sunday, February 23rd, 2025

1. It's not a wrong thing to be encouraged. When do we cross the line (in a sinful manner), moving from encouragement to a need to approval and applause? Is that in you?
2. What is at the root of a need for approval and recognition? Why do we try so hard to make a name for ourselves? And why is that opposed to the way of Jesus?
3. "There will always be more people willing to do "great" things for God than there are people willing to do the little things. The race to be a leader is crowded, but the field is wide open for those willing to be servants" Discuss.
4. What helpful advice would you give to someone who felt short changed on recognition for something in their past... where someone else got the credit. Is this you? How do we speak truth into that?
5. Privately and secretly ask God what small way you can serve him this week that will go deliberately unnoticed by anyone else.
