REVOLUTION – wk.3 | GROUP CONTENT

SERMON QUESTIONS:

1. Intentionality – The message showed Jesus intentionally moving toward people who were overlooked, ignored, or treated as less valuable. Who in your everyday life might Jesus be inviting you to see differently or move toward more intentionally?

2. Courageous Obedience – Jesus was willing to create awkward moments and challenge social expectations in order to defend the dignity of people. What does courageous obedience to Jesus look like in your current season of life?

3. Value – The sermon asked, “What is the worth of a human being?” How does the cross personally reshape the way you view your own value before God?

4. The Challenge – Jesus challenged pride, status, and self-protection at the dinner table. In what practical ways might God be calling you to become more humble, welcoming, generous, or compassionate toward others?

5. God’s Love – The message reminded us that we cannot claim to love God and love people while refusing to receive the value God places on us. Why do you think many people struggle to accept God’s love for themselves, and what might obedience and healing look like in that area?

“I Will” STATEMENT: An ‘I Will’ Statement is where we respond to what we discussed by making a simple commitment to an action we can complete in the next week. It is a deliberate commitment to practically obey the Word of God and listen to the Holy Spirit. Share what you feel like God may be calling you to do.

PRAYER: Take time to ask each person how the group can be praying for them during the next week. Take notes so you can follow up. If this is your first meeting, plan to be the one to pray out loud for the group. As the group continues, pay attention to everyone’s comfort level with praying out loud before inviting others to do so. No one should feel pressured, but should be encouraged.
