The message challenged the idea that many of us have created a version of Jesus shaped by culture, upbringing, personality, or preference. What assumptions or images of Jesus have most influenced the way you think about Him?

Mary accepted Jesus on His terms, even though it brought misunderstanding, shame, and personal cost. Where is God asking you to trust or obey Him right now, even if it feels uncomfortable or costly?

The sermon showed how Jesus entered a world marked by power struggles, political posturing, violence, and fear. What similarities do you see between the world Jesus entered and the world we live in today?

The message described Jesus as deeply disruptive, overturning assumptions about power, greatness, status, and belonging. In what ways does the real Jesus still confront or disrupt the values of our culture, and perhaps even your own life?

Revelation revealed the spiritual reality behind the Christmas story: not just a quiet manger scene, but a cosmic battle between the kingdom of God and the powers of darkness. How does seeing both the earthly and spiritual dimensions of Jesus' arrival deepen your understanding of who He is?
